

Questions to Ask When Making a Major Transition

Transition is the ability to move from one state or environment to the next. There are times when transitions happen by choice, but at other times, they may be unexpected. Whether you want it to happen or not, change can sometimes be inevitable.

Read the questions below and answer them, afterwards use the information to meditate on.

1. Are you currently growing where you are?
2. Can you get to where you need to be from where you are?
3. Do you believe God called you to transition?
4. What makes you think it's time to transition?
5. How long have you been in this place, season, or position?
6. How long have you felt this way?
7. What has been your specific prayer to God on the matter?
8. What are a few things that may be holding you back from this transition?
9. Is this a transition that requires:
Planning, faith, or both
10. Can you remember a time similar to this? If so, how did you handle it?

I Prayer this questionnaire helps you get to the root of all God may be calling out of you. Sometimes, transition brings about transformation. Think of certain Biblical characters such as Jesus, Paul, Elijah and many more. Think of what they may have sacrificed, or the type of faith they needed in order to move into their next position and why it was necessary. May God guide and keep you.

 Esther D.